Why attend?

- Since its inception over 20 years ago, this Institute has trained 100s of participants- each aspiring to become a community college president.
- A majority of those participants are now community college presidents.
- Our presenters are nationally recognized individuals who have outstanding reputations as experienced leaders in community colleges or equivalent experience in leadership.
- The Institute offers an interactive learning experience for the participants:
 - Interactive Instruction
 - Group Case Studies
 - Mock Interviews
 - Panels on Leadership & More
- Past participant evaluations indicate this Institute was instrumental in moving them forward in their goal to become a community college president.
- State President, Mr. Peter Hans, will address participants regarding the community college presidency in North Carolina.
